Weymouth man denies murder; ordered held without bail at Superior Court arraignment

Contact: Norfolk District Attorney's Office, 781-830-4800 x 217

The Weymouth man accused of killing his houseguest in May pled not guilty at his Norfolk Superior Court arraignment today (July 12, 2011) and the court allowed prosecutors' request that he be held without bail, Norfolk District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey announced.

Eric Carpenito (DOB May 2, 1978) was indicted by a Norfolk County Grand Jury on one count of murder last month for stabbing 51-year old David Lilley to death on May 24, 2011, in the apartment they were temporarily sharing at 5200 Avalon Drive in Weymouth.

He is due back in Norfolk Superior Court Nov. 2, 2011 for Pre-Trial Conference.

Any and all defendants mentioned are legally innocent until proven guilty.
